

Session 3

Experiences Using the Child Functioning Module-Teacher Version (CFM-TV)

Jennifer Madans
Chair, Washington Group

Background

- The WG Secretariat had received multiple requests for information on the Child Functioning Module-Teacher Version (CFM-TV) in a range of contexts, including humanitarian and emergency contexts
 - As evidence on the CFM-TV is still limited, the requestors were planning or undertaking evaluations of the CFM-TV
 - The WG Secretariat convened a meeting in September 2021 to promote an exchange of knowledge among partners regarding their experiences with the CFM-TV and plans for evaluations

Objectives and Agenda

- Objectives:
 - To provide a space to share information, to establish connections among partners, and to explore next steps
 - Agenda:
 - Participants were invited to provide a brief intervention on their experiences and/or planned activities using the CFM-TV
 - Open discussion of the presentations
 - Discussion of next steps

Participants

- Invitations were made to those who requested information and access to the CFM-TV from the WG Secretariat.
 - We believe that other groups are doing similar work and are welcome to join the group
- The following entities participated in the meeting:
 - Education Cannot Wait
 - Humanity and Inclusion
 - Save the Children International
 - Save the Children Norway
 - Sightsavers
 - UNICEF
 - USAID
 - Worldvision

Next Steps

- Participants requested that the WG Secretariat continue to convene meetings so that they can share progress on their respective projects.
 - The WG Secretariat agreed to develop a document that summarized the different planned evaluation strategies.
 - The WG Secretariat agreed to develop a statement of cross-cutting issues that would be addressed in evaluations of the CFM-TV.
 - Participants suggested that the group consider sharing experiences in some to-be-determined format during the Global Disability Summit. GLAD was also raised as possible dissemination entry-point.

Next Steps

- Session during the Washington Group 21st Annual Meeting (November 8-10, 2021) to invite group members will present on their experiences.
