

Washington Group on Disability Statistics

Second Meeting

January 9-10, 2003: Ottawa, Canada

Agenda

Day 1 - Thursday, January 9, 2003

- The Disability Measurement Matrix, Barbara Altman, Jennifer Madans
- General Disability Measures in Developing Countries: Relationship Purpose of Measurement, Margaret Mbogoni
- General Disability Measures Used in Developed Countries: Question Characteristics, Elizabeth Rasch
- General Measure on People with Disabilities in the European Statistical System (ESS), Elena de Palma
- Analysis of Matrices: Identifying the Measurement Gaps, Jennifer Madans
- Viewing Measures via the Matrix: Do We Have What We Need?, Barbara Altman, Jennifer Madans
- General Measures of Health for Use in Health Interview Surveys and Censuses: the UK Experience, Howard Meltzer
- Implementation of MEHM-items in HIS in Denmark (MEHM=Minimum European Health Module), Niels Rasmussen

Day 2 - Friday, January 10, 2003

- Trends in the Prevalence of Disability and Chronic Conditions: Implications for Survey Design and Measurement of Disability, Xingyan Wen
- The OECD Experience in Using Survey-Based Disability Data: An Illustration of Current Possibilities and Limitations, Gaétan Lafortune
- Questions on Disabilities Raised in the Last Census in St. Lucia, Ethel Jn. Baptiste
- Brazil's Experience Using the Census, Renée Langlois on behalf of Alicia Bercovich
- Measurement of Disability in Australia, Elisabeth Davis
- Measurement of Disability in Egypt, Bothaina Mahmoud El-Deeb
- Canadian Valuation of Health States: Protocol for Selecting Health State Attributes, Jean-Marie Berthelot
- Results from the Canadian 2001 Census and Post-Censal Disability Survey, Renée Langlois, Éric Langlet
- Disability in Canadian Questionnaires, Sally Kader

- Measurement in Existing Surveys /Participation and Environmental factors, Marijke de Klein de Vankrijke
- General Disability Measurement in Uganda – Focusing on Improvement in Methodology and Concepts Used, Pamela Nabukhonzo